

Mike Cline

Disability Support Services

Mike Cline serves Ivy Tech Community College in the position of Disability Support Services Assistant. He graduated from Ball State University with a Masters in Mild Interventions K-12 and retired from Madison-Grant Jr/Sr High School after 24 years of teaching students with emotional disabilities. He spent more than 20 years as a Varsity Assistant Coach in basketball and baseball. He has been married to Kendra Cline for 47 years and has a son named Kevin who teaches at Frankton Jr/Sr High School; their daughter-in-law, Dawn, is an administrator in the mammogram department for Ascension St. Vincent Hospital. He and Kendra have two grandsons, Grayer and Rowan. In his spare time, Mike likes to play golf, go antiquing with Kendra, and cheer on Grayer and Rowan.
