

Dr. Amy Ward

Vice Chancellor for Student Advocacy

Dr. Amy Ward has a higher education career that spans more than twenty years. In addition to being adjunct faculty in several academic areas during that timeframe, Dr. Ward has served in a variety of administrative leadership roles including project manager, hardware/software manager, regional Registrar, and is currently serving as the Vice Chancellor of Student Advocacy. She earned an Associate in Computer Programming from Ivy Tech Muncie, a Bachelor of Science in Business Management with a minor in Computer Science from Indiana Wesleyan University, a Master of Arts in Executive Development from Ball State University focusing on both public service and adult education, and a Doctorate of Education from Ball State University focusing on Community College Leadership. Amy serves as the co-chair of the AWARE Team and as the Muncie, Henry County, and Anderson Ivy Tech judicial officer. She has a passion for “paying it forward” from her own educational journey. Her motto reads, “To serve students well and guide them on their journey to be the best versions of themselves.”

Contact Information

award119@ivytech.edu | 765-289-2291 ext. 1214